5. Headquarters

5.1 The headquarters office of the Pratishthan is in its own building at second floor in 'B' Wing of the Pradhikaran Bhawan at Ujjain (M.P.) which had been purchased by the Pratishthan from the Ujjain Development Authority in February, 1993. As a long-term measure, the State Government of Madhya Pradesh had allotted land measuring 9.553 Hectares (23.6 acres) to the Pratishthan. The State Government handed over the possession of the land to the Pratishthan in April, 1994.

5.2 In accordance with the decision taken by the Governing Council of the Pratishthan, the work of preparation of the design of Pratishthan's buildings, etc. was entrusted to the Chief Architect of the C.P.W.D. The Pratishthan obtained plans and estimates prepared by the C.P.W.D. for construction of buildings and development of land at Ujjain in November and December, 1999 in two lots. Thereafter expeditious action was taken to obtain the Government's approval for provision of necessary funds for the said purpose. A Memorandum on the subject was referred to the Ministry of HRD for seeking approval of the Standing Finance Committee of the Government in this regard. The SFC in its meeting held on 4.8.2000 considered the Memorandum. The SFC had decided that the proposals may be reformulated in the light of the discussions held in the meeting and the matter may again be brought before the Committee soon. Meanwhile, the Committee had approved the proposal for construction of Boundary wall and Gate at an estimated cost of Rs.62.58 lakhs. The Ministry had also sanctioned a grant of Rs.62.58 lakhs to the Pratishthan for this purpose.

5.3 The meeting of Standing Finance Committee (S.F.C.) was held on 18-12-2007 for the construction of building and development of campus. For this an amount of Rs 25.02 Crore was sanctioned. For this purpose, C.P.W.D. handed over maps for the construction of building to the Pratishthan. It was permitted by the Pratishthan on March 2008. The amount of Rs 2 crore and 80 lacs received as a grant in aid from the ministry during the year 2010-11 and submitted to Central Public Work Department, Indore. The tender for other buildings is in dilemma due to the involvement of Central Public Work Department (CPWD). The construction work is dead due to unefficiency of the CPWD.

6. Corpus Fund of the Pratishthan

6.1 At the time of establishment of the Pratishthan, Government had envisaged that a Corpus Fund of Rupees Ten Crores would be placed at its disposal so that recurring income from its investment may be utilised for financing various activities and programmes of the Pratishthan. By the end of 1996-97 total amounts of Rupees Ten Crores was provided by Government in installments for this purpose.

6.2 As per decision taken on 18-10-2001 in the meeting of the Finance Committee, a sum of Rs.10, 51, 44, 931.74 lying in the general fund has been added in the Corpus Fund. Now the Corpus Fund has been a sum of Rs.20, 51, 44,931.74.

7. New Programmes Approved

7.1 The Standing Finance Committee (SFC) of the Government of India in its meeting held on 24.11.98 had considered the proposal of the Pratishthan for enhancement of its Corpus Fund. After detailed discussion, the Committee was satisfied about the need and justification for enhanced requirement of funds by the Pratishthan for sustaining the on-going programmes and for introducing new academic programmes, which are required to fulfill the objectives of the Pratishthan.

7.2 The Standing Finance Committee (SFC) decided to provide the additional requirement of funds by annual budgetary support from Government instead of through enhancement of Corpus Fund. It was also emphasized by the SFC that the Pratishthan's activities and Programmes would not be allowed to suffer due to paucity of funds and the budgetary allocations would be protected. In accordance with the decision of SFC, the Department of Education of the Ministry of HRD released 12 Crore during 2010-11 as grant-in-aid to the Pratishthan towards additional expenditure on on-going programmes.

7.3 The new academic programmes, which were accepted by the SFC, have been given below. The position obtaining during the year under report about their implementation has been indicated in brackets below each, where applicable:

9.7 Fellowships

9.7.1 There is a provision for fellowships to promote Vedic research. For this purpose, a comprehensive fellowships scheme is in operation in the Pratishthan. The main objective of the scheme is to promote research on various aspects of Vedas and Vedic Literature by providing opportunity to scholars, specially the young research scholars so that they can complete the depth study on research topic of their choice under research projects on a full-time basis.

The following fellowships are being provided under the scheme:

- (1) National Fellowships;
- (2) Senior Fellowships;
- (3) General Fellowships;
- (4) Junior Research Fellowships, and
- (5) Training Fellowships

9.7.2 The eligibility, qualifications, terms and conditions for the Fellowships, the number of various categories of Fellowships available at a particular point of time, etc. are laid down in the scheme. The Fellowships are actually awarded keeping in view the viability of the Fellowship projects and the availability of budget provision during a particular financial year.

9.8 Publications

9.8.1 Publication is an important programme of the Pratishthan to fulfil its objectives. The Out-of-print and rare texts relating to Vedic literature are reprinted and published under this programme. Printing of critical editions and translations into various languages of certain texts, monographs on important topics and report of research work done by Fellows of Pratishthan are also undertaken. In addition, the research papers presented at the seminars, workshops and the proceedings thereof are also taken up for publication.

9.8.2 Katyayan Mooladhyaya Parishisht and Rigvediya Shandkhayanshakhiyo Rudrapath collection were published during this financial year.

9.9 Publication of Journal

9.9.1 The Pratishthan also publishes a quarterly Journal namely "Vedvidya" in which good outstanding essays related with Veda published in Hindi, English and Sanskrit so that both the scholars and common people may avail advantage of it. It is a refereed research journal with ISSN No 2230-8962.

9.9.2 The details of Books published/financially assisted so far by the Pratishthan are given in Annex VI.

9.10 Library

9.10.1 The Pratishthan is maintaining a Library of its own at Ujjain, and at present the Library has about 3000 books on its shelves on Vedic literature and allied subjects. Because there is limitation of space in the building of the Pratishthan at Pradhikaran Bhawan, Ujjain and qualified library staff is yet to be recruited, specific growth of the Library has not taken place since 1993-94 but in the present year some number of books increased in the Library. As part of the overall construction programme of the Pratishthan on the land allotted to it by the State Government, and as a long-term measure, a growth plan along with necessary building plan for the Library of the Pratishthan is under process.

9.11 Vedic Mathematics

9.11.1 The Pratishthan has been inspiring the research in Vedic Mathematics right from the inception. During 1992-93, an Expert Committee set up on this subject had been at work. As a result of follow-up action on various recommendations of the Expert Committee, NCERT had included some Sutras and their applications as enrichment materials in teachers' training programme. Workshops are also being conducted periodically for training of school teachers in Vedic Mathematics. During the year under report, no workshop could be organized for the said purpose.

9.12 Scheme for preparation of 'Vedic Directory'

9.12.1 The work is in progress under its ambitious scheme to prepare 'Vedic Directory'. Video-recording of recitation of various Shakhas of Vedas, Brahmanas, etc. by utilizing Digital or CD Rom technique for preservation of oral tradition of Vedic recitation.

9.12.2 Preservation of rare Vedic manuscripts through digital or CD Rom technique. Manus data sheets of Manuscripts available with various institutions are preparing at present.

9.13 Financial Assistance to Aged Veda pathis

9.13.1 During the year 2010-11, a grant of Rs.5,50,000/- was paid to the Veda Patha Nidhi Trust, Chennai as Pratishthan's contribution to their scheme of assisting aged Veda Pathis. The Veda Pata Nidhi Trust provides grant to aged Veda Pathis at the following rates:

- (1) Veda Pathis who have crossed 80 years of age and are trained in Sanskrit and Shastras, financial assistance is given @ Rs.600/-p.m. each.
- (2) Veda Pathis who are above the age of 80 years, financial assistance is given @ Rs.500/-p.m. each.
- (3) Other Veda Pathis, who are aged 65 years and above, financial assistance, is given @ Rs.400/-p.m. each.

9.13.2 Pratishthan provides financial assistance direct to Aged Veda Pathis who have crossed the age of 65 years and handicapped Veda Pathis. During the year under report, a grant of Rs. 2,32,000/- was paid directly by the Pratishthan to 47 Aged Veda Pathis @ Rs.500/-p.m. each. Due to the death of an aged Vedpathi, only 8 months grant provided.

9.14 Financial Assistance to Nityagnihotries

9.14.1 The Pratishthan has a scheme of providing financial assistance @ Rs.1000/- p.m. to such Nityagnihotries, who along with their wives, have been performing Nityagnihotra at their homes regularly, including serving of cow, according to ancient Vedic tradition for the well being of Universe. The financial assistance is meant for meeting partially the expenditure incurred by the Nityagnihotri for performing the Nityagnihotra. Preference is given to those old aged Vedists, who have no better source of income to perform this compulsory rite of Agnihotra.

9.14.2 A grant for the said purpose is under process with officers and is expected to released soon during 2010-11.

9.15 Honouring Veda Pathis

9.15.1 During the year 2010-11, Veda Pathis were honoured by paying Rs.2500/-each as "Sambhavana" at Golaghat (Assam), Kolkata(West Bengal), Balsad(Gujarat), Aurangabad (Maharashtra), Ujjain (Madhya Pradesh), Rajapalayam(Chennai).

9.16 Celebration of Veda Gyan Saptah

9.16.1 The Pratishthan started the programme of celebration of "Veda Gyan Saptah" in various parts of the country, in order to promote Vedic literacy. The programme aims at creating awareness in the country about the Vedas, Vedic knowledge and Indian culture.

9.16.2 Under this programme, grants are provided in accordance with the approved norms to renowned Vedic institutions or scholars for undertaking during full one week such activities as lectures by eminent Vedic Scholars on selected topics of utility to the general public, exhibitions through paintings, charts, models, etc., relaying suitable messages related to Vedic sayings on the A.I.R. and Doordarshan network, competition of recitation of Vedic Suktas/Mantras among the students and award of prizes, honouring Vedic Scholars, etc. The celebrations are arranged in prominent cities.

9.17 Tape-Recording of Vedic Recitations

9.17.1 The tape-recording of the recitation of various Vedic Shakhas is an essential activity of the Pratishthan for the preservation of the oral tradition. A nucleus of tape-recording of certain shakhas existed in the Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeeth at Tirupati. During 1992-93 and 1993-94 arrangements had been made with that Vidyapeeth to get the tapes duplicated for the Pratishthan, so that a complete set of Veda recitations, which have so far been tape-recorded, is available centrally. The tapes available with the Vidyapeeth at Tirupati have been duplicated. The details of Audio-Video tapes in respect of Vedic recitations of different Shakhas and in different styles collected by the Pratishthan from various sources are given in Annex VII.

9.17.2 A lot of more work remains to be done in this field. Due to variety of reasons, the Pratishthan has not been able to make any progress in this direction. A plan is being prepared for resuscitation of the tape-recording programme.

9.18 Preparation of Audio Cassette Package

9.18.0 The programme for communicating elementary knowledge, introduction to ved containing human and moral values, vedic tradition for the purpose of publicity of vedvidya. An audio cassette package for 20 to 25 hours was made in 1994-95. Initially it was in hindi. An expert is preparing material for cassette. After evaluation it will be prepared in English and other languages.

9.19 Ghar Baithe Vedon ki Shiksha

9.19.1 A two years correspondence course "Ghar Baithe Vedon ki Shiksha" has been introduced by the Pratishthan. A certificate "Ved Nipun" would be provided to passed Vedic scholars. The aim of the course is to disseminate Vedic knowledge among common people. The Vedic knowledge includes 4 Vedas, 6 Vedangas, Brahmin Grantha, Aranyaka, Upnishad and the role and importance of Indian Culture and Philosophy. There is a provision to deliver lecture and gathas for creating aptitude for this syllabus. The course is well to do in this session. The course may be done in hindi and english also.
