Q.1 Read the passage given below and answer the following questions: 20

Rama Natha was the son of a rich landlord. His father left him large tracts of land when he died. But Rama Natha did not spend even one day looking after his land. This was because he had a funny idea—he believed there was a magic potion that could turn any object into gold. He spent all his time to learn more about this potion. People cheated him often, promising to tell him about it, but he did not give up. His wife, Madhumati, was tired of this and also worried because she saw how much money Rama Natha was spending. She was sure that soon they would be without money.

One day, a famous sage called Mahipati came to their town. Rama Natha became his follower and asked him about the potion. To his surprise the sage answered, “Yes, in my travels in the Himalayas, I heard how you could make such a potion. But it is difficult.”

I realize now that I am alone.

On myself I must learn to rely.

I have to begin to stand on my own.

If I fail I must continue to try.

I can ask others for their opinions,

But ultimately it's I who'll decide.

I'll be the ruler of my dominion,

Determining which road I'll take with pride.

Though some may disagree with my choices,

Thinking they know a better path to take.

Though people in abuse raise their voices,

It's up to me my destiny to make.

By being true to myself I begin

To learn how to stand alone: how to win.
