Information:

(1) The Pratishthan does NOT make any phone calls regarding the selection of a Veda Pathshala or Veda Unit, nor does it accept any money or fees. Therefore, do not give money to anyone or fall prey to any unscrupulous or fraudulent persons on the pretext of obtaining a Veda Pathshala or Veda Unit. Do not fall into the trap of any such persons. A Veda Pathshala or Veda Unit cannot be obtained without complete memorization of saswara Veda mantras.

(2) This advertisement is neither for government employment nor for any government service, whether permanent or temporary, nor is it an advertisement for permanent and perpetual grants. It is a scheme based arrangement for financial assistance which is solely based on the continuation of the scheme and budget and may be discontinued at any time. In the event of selection under this scheme, the institution shall legally remain a voluntary organization and the Guru or teacher shall be considered self-employed and shall not be deemed to be a government employee. Only registered institutions and dedicated Veda Gurus who are committed to providing students with high quality residential facilities, security, clothing, satvik food, and imparting high quality teaching in Saswara Vedas and allied modern subjects should apply. Selection will be made solely on the basis of quality.

Fill in the prescribed application proforma and submit it along with all the required documents by 5:00 PM on 21-10-2026, either through Government Speed Post or by personally depositing it in the drop box placed at the gate of the Pratishthan. The prescribed format of the application form is enclosed. Any application received after 21-10-2026 will not be considered for the current year. For future purposes, this advertisement shall be treated as a rolling advertisement, in the order indicated earlier.

2. With the objective of providing teaching and study of the saswara Vedas along with the propagation of Vedas across the country, preference may be given to establishing new Veda Pathshalas or GSP Units in such states and locations as the border areas, far-flung rural areas of the country/rural areas adjoining towns/ development blocks/ places of penance (Tapasthalis) associated with R̥sis and Munis/ renowned pilgrimage centres/ culturally and historically significant towns where all Veda Shakhas and Vedic traditions flourished in an excellent manner/ Vanvasi areas/ Towns having a Vedic-cultural tradition where, for any reason, forces opposed to the Vedas are present and where no Veda Pathshala/GSP Unit financially assisted by the Pratishthan is currently functioning, but where there are a significant number of dedicated Veda students and competent Veda Acharyas capable of imparting high quality Veda teaching.
3. This approval for providing grants to additional Veda Pathshalas and GSP Units shall be subject to the number and budget prescribed by the Ministry of Education, Government of India. Whichever Veda Pathshala or GSP Unit is selected shall be required to apply every year and participate in the application process.
4. The final decision regarding the selection of the Veda Pathshala/GSP Unit shall rest with the Expert Committee and shall be binding on all.
5. Read the guidelines governing the Veda Pathshalas and GSP Units available on the Pratishthan's website in their entirety. Apply only after accepting all the terms and conditions.
6. Pratishthan is not to provide a teaching position at a Veda Pathshala or GSP Unit located in the native place or home of the Vedapathi or other teacher, or within their home state.
7. Under NO circumstances a new Veda Pathshala/GSP Unit will be considered in places where a Veda Pathshala/Guru-Shishya Parampara Unit is already being operated with financial assistance from the Pratishthan and where the number of students per Guru is very low (lesser than five).
8. If more than two Guru-Shishya Parampara Units are being operated at the same location, the GSP Units may be merged and converted into a Veda Pathshala under an institution eligible to operate a Veda Pathshala. Applicants for Guru-Shishya Parampara Units should apply only after being prepared to accept such merger. After conversion of the GSP Unit into a Veda Pathshala, its recognition as a Guru-Shishya Parampara Unit shall be ceased. The GSP Unit status shall not be granted again.

1.10.2026

9. The annual number of Veda Pathshalas and GSP Units indicated above shall be subject to the receipt of budgetary funds from the Government of India. In case the grant-in-aid amount is not made available by the Government, no additional Veda Pathshalas or GSP Units will be financial assisted for that year; that is, no financial assistance will be released to such additional Pathshalas and GSP Units. For the purpose of receiving financial assistance, making telephone calls through any person to influence the selection /sending messages to any officer for the purpose of securing selection/getting a letter written by any highly distinguished person in support of selection/ or repeatedly visiting and attempting to meet officials may constitute sole reason for debarment from the selection process. The applicants of such Veda Pathshalas and GSP Units shall be debarred from the Samparikshan process. Under NO circumstances shall such applicants be considered for financial assistance.

10. Persons/institutions operating a Veda Pathshala by presently receiving grant-in-aid/financial assistance from any government source (State or Central Government) OR from any trust controlled by the Government OR, those engaged in Veda teaching while spending the auspicious morning hours (as prescribed by Shashtras) meant for Veda Parayana OR, those operating a GSP Unit by receiving an honorarium from any other government source, shall not be eligible to be covered under this scheme of the Pratishtan. An affidavit will be required to be furnished confirming that no honorarium is being received from any other government source or from any other Government.

11. The minimum age for selection as a Veda teacher in a Veda Pathshala is 21 years. The minimum age for selection for modern subject teacher is 25 years. The minimum age for selection as a Veda GSP Unit teacher is 21 years.

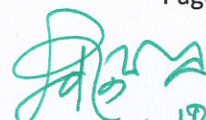

Mandatory documents for financial assistance to Veda Pathshala

1. Registration of the institution/organization under the Registration Act is mandatory. The Veda Pathshala will operate under the said institution/organization. For receiving financial assistance for the Veda Pathshala, the institution/organization holding a PAN will have to maintain a separate bank account.

2. Registration of the institution/organization on the Darpan Portal of Government of India is mandatory.

3. Details of the Institution/Organization: It is mandatory that “Saswara Veda Study and Teaching (Saswara Veda Adhyayana-Adhyapana)” be explicitly mentioned among the objectives of the institution/organization. Applications will not be considered where only objectives relating to education, social welfare, culture, etc. are mentioned. Institutions/Organizations/Trusts whose primary objective does not include “Saswara Veda Study and Teaching (Saswara Veda Adhyayana-Adhyapana)” need not apply. Teachers who have not memorized the Veda Shakha shall not be eligible for financial assistance; therefore, institutions/organizations should not propose the names of such teachers.

4. It is mandatory that the objectives of the institution/organization mention “Complete dedication towards imparting comprehensive education in the oral recitation of the Vedas” and promoting and propagating the Vedas through oral recitation.” Documentary evidence of the work carried out by the institution/organization at its own expense during the preceding three years will have to be furnished. Institutions/Organizations that have been unable to undertake the Veda promotion and propagation works assigned by the Pratishtan shall not be considered.

5. Under NO circumstances shall applications from institutions/organizations participating in examinations of any other Board be considered. An affidavit shall be furnished stating that the students enrolled specifically for studying Karmakanda (ritual practices) shall not be mixed with the students pursuing the complete course of Vedic studies; that the institution/organization shall not seek affiliation with any other Board in future; and that examinations shall be conducted only through the Maharshi Sandipani Rashtriya Veda Sanskrit Shiksha Board.

6. A certificate of affiliation to the Maharshi Sandipani Rashtriya Veda Sanskrit Shiksha Board for the past three years or more is mandatory.

7. Details of the Chairperson, the Secretary and the other members of the institution/organization, along with details of the institution/organization to be submitted.

8. Complete details to be submitted of the teachers who have memorized the entire Veda Shakha and teaching saswara Veda, as well as complete details of the teachers of other modern subjects and the Veda students. Institutions/Organizations whose Veda teachers have not fully memorized the Veda Shakha need not apply.

Mandatory documents for financial assistance to Guru-Shishya Parampara Units

1. Details of the complete saswara based study of the Vedas as per tradition and memorisation of the Vedas are mandatory. Those who have not completely memorized the Veda Shakha need not apply.

2. A certificate of affiliation to the Pratishtan or the Maharshi Sandipani Rashtriya Veda Sanskrit Shiksha Board for the last three years or more.

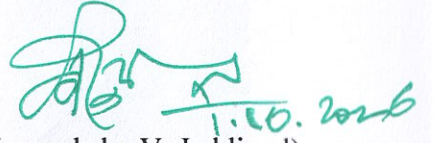

3. Location of the GSP Unit where the GSP Unit is intended to be operated.

4. Clearly mention whether the GSP Unit will operate from the independent residence of Guru or under any institution/organization. Once the location is finalized, under no circumstances the Guru-Shishya Parampara Unit shall be shifted thereafter.

5. Approval for the Veda Pathshala (Veda Guru/Teacher, State and Institution/Location) and the GSP Unit (the selection of the Guru, State and Location) shall be made at the discretion of the authorized Selection Committee of the Pratishtan, based on the requirement and the quality of propagation and dissemination of the Vedas. The decision of the Committee shall be final and binding on all. Applicants are advised to apply only if they agree to and accept this condition.
