Office Order – 2026

Sub : Conduct of Special Coaching/Remedial Classes for students who have not passed the Veda Vibhushan Second Year (Seventh Year) Examination-reg.

It is hereby informed that, as per the examination results for the year 2025-26, several Seventh Year students have failed to qualify. It is necessary to conduct Special Coaching/Remedial Classes for all such students. During the academic session, the responsibility for teaching imparted to the students and their academic progress rests with the Veda Guru and subject teachers concerned.

Therefore, it is the responsibility of every Guru/Teacher of all Veda Pathshalas/Guru-Shishya Parampara Units to undertake self-assessment after declaration of the examination result and review the performance of the students taught by them, including the number of students who have passed and those who have failed. After such self-assessment, the Gurus/Teachers whose students are found to have failed shall ensure the regular conduct of special Remedial Classes for the students concerned so as to address their academic learning gaps and facilitate the desired improvement in their performance in future examinations.

Proper records of Remedial Classes shall be maintained. Further, in compliance with the directives contained in Order No. 2023 dated 08.06.2026 issued earlier, the requisite information shall be furnished to the Pratishthan in the prescribed format.
